BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The French Embassy here was besieged for nearly three hours today by howling mobs of infuriated Nationalists, while the headquarters of the Inter-Allied Disarmament Commission at the Hotel Bellevus was stormed by a huge Monarchist crowd, in the course of the demonstration called today by the bourgeois parties in protest against the French occupation of the Ruhr Basin.

Another mob, numbering close to 5000 and snarling and muttering ominously, tried to break through the Brandenburg Gate, a stone's throw from the French Suard, and the frozen body of the Embassy. Obregon's Annulment of Elections is Cause of Chaos: President Scored

BY JACK STARR HUNT.

"Times" Staff Correspondent MEXICO CITY, Jan. 14. — A angled, and chaptic situation in tivil and criminal courts has re-suited here since recent judiciary appointments were declared illegal, and many local courts are without judges while cases of all kinds are piling up.

President Obregon was attacked bitterly in El Universal yesterday for allowing the situation to continue.

When questioned, the President minimised the difficulties, refusing to talk at length on the subject. He declared the entire matter was merely a party difference which would be adjusted in due course of time.

would be adjusted in due course of time.

The situation was brought about by President Obregon's annulment of recent elections, and has been the subject of wide discussion in business and diplomatic circles. El Universal, in an editorial captioned "City Left Without Constitutional Guarantees," declares that the jails are filled with prisoners who are unable to obtain hearings because there are no judges, that cases of fraud are increasing and that the situation encourages lawlessness. Civil suits and actions of various kinds also are held up for the lack of judges to try them. TREATY DENOUNCED

The demonstration was concluded by he adoption of a faming the protest against "the violation of the rights of the German people by the forcible asisure of the Rhur." The resolution denounced the Treaty of Versailles and vowed that the German people will "never submit to the slavery of being compelled to work under force of the bayonets of peace-breakers."

Cries of "Down with France," and similar exclamations constantly punctuated the proceedings, while the wildest enthusiasm broke forth when the bands struck up the war-time marching congs. The speakers adressed the crowd from the steps of the Reichstag, near the Bismarck, Moltke, Roon and Victory monuments. During the demonstration someone hung black draped wreath on the Fismarck monument as a token of mourning for the occupied province, while throughout the city the flags were kept at halfmast all day.

Wet and dry legislation is little discussed. Most of the legislator's take the attitude that the Constitution of the United States, the Volstead Act and the Wright Act have expressed so unmistakably the will of the majority that anything further, either for or against, would be futile. A few staunch "wests" have memorials, amendments and possibly bills, all calculated to soften the rigors of the drought, but nothing is heard of them.

Reapportionment, one of the big issues in the last session, is discussed to some extent. CHANCELLORS RULED HIM

Bismarck, of course, was responsible for all evil, and his brutal character often hurt the gentle soul of the Kaiser, who sought relief in solitude or travels. As for Caprivi, the author of the memoirs seems to have had a rather more human opinion of him, but Bulew, who was esteemed by everybody having to do with foreign affairs in Europe, seems to have earned the Kaiser's hostility. The only other one of his chancellors, beside Hohenlobe, was Bethmann-Hollweg, the man of the 4th of August, he who had the audacity to justify the violation of Belgian neutrality by alleging that it was necessary. This man at least, one would think, would have been spared by William, since Bethmann to any the head of him who wrote them!

to do under the circumstances.
Congress will have to decide to take it or leave it. There is every reason to believe that after a few demagogic speeches designed to appeal to ignorance and prejudice have been heard, the great majority of Congressional opinion will favor acceptance of the terms.
Should Congress reject the recommendations it will have to do so

MEXICO CITY. (Mex.) Jan.
14.—The tamous lands of Luis Terranas, who during the Dias administration was Mexico's greatest individual land owner, are to be subdivided among thousands of Indians in Chihushua.

Minister of the Interior Calles has appointed Deputy Luis Leen to award and direct the exprepriation of the lands, which were recently acquired by the government in accordance with the agrarian laws. Deputy Leon leaves for Chihushus. next week.

The Terranas lands include more than 500,000 acree, taking in almost as much territory as the State of Chihushua. Since 1910 until quite recently, they were the center of the activities of many Mexican leaders, including Villa.
The Terranas family was hit hard by the upheaval, following the revolution, and death has overtaken each member except

"Speaking," Kendrick answered.
"This is Peter Phipps, from right away opposite. Say, I am told that John Wingate of New York is a client of yours."

Kendrick passed across the spare receiver to Wingate and paused for a moment while the latter held it to his ear.
"He is." Kendrick admitted,
"Well, I am given to understand that he is coming into the city to do business." Phipps continued. "If he is in any way disposed to be a seller, we are buyers of wheat for autumn delivery at market price, perhaps even a shade over."
"Any quantity?" Kendrick inquired.
"A hundred thousand—anything up to a million bushels, if Mr. Wingate feels. like coming in big. Anyway, we're ready to talk business. Will you put it up to your client?"
"I will."
"Shall you be seeing him seen?"

Pacific Coast League Confab Opens in Portland-. Draft Row to Be Discussed

Present indications point to another house filed to the overflow when the fans assemble to witness the second battle between Bud Ridley and Danny Kramer in the main event at Doyle's Vernon arena tomorrow night. This bout has all the earmarks of being all that one might desire in the way of fistic entertainment. Kramer was awarded the verdict last week, but it was a fairly close decision at that and Ridley was so confident that he can reserve the decire on that Matchmaker Wad Wadhams thought it a wise move to reflatch the little fellows.

The fans are considerably heated up over the possible outcome of the semi-wind-up, which will bring together Danny Dillon and Young Farrell. These 122-pounders possess reputations that would make most any of the four-round ring artiss turn green with envy. Neither knows the meaning of "quarter" so the mill bits fair to be equally as sensational as the headline attraction.

Other bouts on the program follow:

TAKE ON RANCHO

After their match at the Wilshire take on the Rancho team. Clarkson and Edde Loos are two cracker jack players and ought to put up a keen battle against the invadera.

Loos by his superb showing at the State open championships has proved beyond question that he is a power to be feared in the golf

MIXED FOURSOME TAKE ON RANCHO

MIXED FOURSOME In one of the best days of golf the Los Angeles Country Club has seen for some time, a mixed foursome tournament was run off that proved a lot of interest to the club members. The first honors of the day's play went to Mrs. J. J. Donahue and Edward Karneh. This couple went around the eighteen holes with a low score of $5-15-76. This was a fine score for the couple as they were at somewhat of a disadvantage due to their lack of experience with one another.

Second money went to Mrs. Charles K. More and A. D. S. Johnston who finished the round in $64. Second would seem impossible wards the end of the third it became evident that Sarassom Jock would come out on top. He second guite unsteady on his second as several times putting

The winners opened the

when Millord netted on a pass from Mercer. It was a nice goal, and well merited. The counter was evidently tonic for the club, who soon after made it two when Dr. Brix, the wizard center, fooled Murray with a high shot that found the corner of the net.
Thereafter followed a period in which the Samson showed some of their usual class, and on more than one occasion Wilkes missed great opportanities to close the gap, brt he sent weakly past. They were able, however, to maintain the pressure long enough to register, Wilkes being the medium.

It was a spiendid play and deservedly drew loud applause.

game that was a terrific struggle from start to finish and which was so full of the spectacular that the 5,000 fans found it a loss of time to attempt to keep their seats. The Visalia victory was the result of an amazing 75-yard run by Lucas, and a 45-yard drop-hiok by Sparks. With seconds remaining in the second half, Lucas took a punt on his own 35-yard line, swung first to one side of the field, where he brushed off an end, and then reversed the field to within a stride of the sideline when he again reversed, dodging through the entire Selma defense. He failed to kick goal.

Selma tied the score on the first play in the fourth quarter when Bailey fooled the Visalia defense on a split buck and went five yards across the line. Selma got within in striking distance by a series of forward passes mixed with great exhibition of line bucking by Bailey. Selma failed to convert. With the final period more than half gone and the ball in Visalia's possession, Sparks dropped back, and while standing on the Selma 45-yard line, boosted the ball in a long arching drop-kick over the trousbare that gave his club victory by a margin of three points.

You will undoubtedly any that does not apply to me, it did not to Jones five years previously, as I sarned later he had been one of the leading Attorneys of the city five years back.

A few years later I returned, this is what I found.

Brown was the head of the office in which I had found Jones, with twe assistants, nominated for District Attorney, while Jones had adingy office in the old building Brown had occupied when I made my first wish, in a condition beyond repair.

The thought I wish to convey in this article is this: if your health is good today take care of it, you can drift as Jones did and not realize it until it is too late. No man became a drunkard of his own free will, so man makes a failure from choice, no man prefers a weak bedy to a sound one, we all know to be efficient one must have the best of health, and this is an age of efficiency, the man who is full of "pep" and has every part of his machinery working in perfect order never allows anything to stop his progress, and will come out on top no matter what his handicap may be on the start.

I've been through the mill: I've had to do with worry, blues, nervousness, fear, dread and insomnia. I've been in the darkest recesses of shadowland, and yet I've found the way to cinch up my mental and physical equipment and come into my natural heritage.

Now the red blood courses through my veina, my eyes are bright, digestion good, Joy is in my heart and song is on my lipa. I have health in abundance, commonly called "pep;" the meaning of that word stands for poise, pluck, peace, power, punch, patience, purpose, so far as P's are concerned, with "pep" likewise means efficiency, enthulsiasm, endurance, example and experience; 100 per cent health gives "pep," which is the found in the progress of or as P's are concerned, with "pep" likewise means efficiency, enthulsiasm, endurance, example and experience; 100 per cent health gives "pep," which is the found of happiness.

Why, I can remember when I went as long as ten weeks without getting a rubdown. If I got one then I was lucky. It was not an everyday thing. Everything now is specialized. We have experts who treat nothing but sore mucles of charley-horse, as we call those peculiar kinks that bunch up the leg muscles without any warning. We have others who specialize on bones of the body. Nobody yet has been able to correct bones of the head, but maybe that will come. I certainly hope so.

The word charley-horse originated from the old name given to the family horse, usually lame or broken down in the legs some way. Those family horses were called old Charley horses. So when ballplayers got tied up in the muscles of to see her blossom forth in a neat marcel.

It's different with the other two. During the dance, which is the least effective part of the picture, because of the star's rather negligible terpsichorean talents, she dons à white flossy sort of wig. It is a symbol of course, as is the silvery white sheath that she wears. The sheath, I know, signifies nudity. There is more such symbology in the play, but I can only presume to touch on the more obvious elements in this review.

I think that Nazimova is supreme in the closing moments of this film. She has made a great plece of drama of the most obviously offensive scene. Nor has she recently looked more beautiful.

The tears that she sheds after kissing the dead lips of Jokanaan, and just before the soldiers rai e their spears against her have real poignancy. The emotion that she might feel is quite beyond analysis, even as the decadence of the Herodian court, as depicted, is popularly mystifying, but the feeling of tragedy is gotten over as feeling simply by Nazimova's skill in expression, and her doubtless fine personal knowledge of what she was doing.

Aside from the star, I think I male pression health Vical 4-personal knowledge of what she was doing.

Aside from the star, I think I would praise most highly Nigel de Bruier for his Jokanaan. By some sort of invisible incantation of acting, he gets over a mysticism that is totally unearthly. Rose Dione and Mitchell Lewis stand out in one's memory through two extraordinary grotesque portraits of Heroidas and Herod. Arthur Jasmile. Earch Schenek and others merit praise.

REAL FOREST
FIRE THIS TIME

Mayhap, you think you have seen forest fires on the screen before, but you never saw one like they have in "Hearts Aflame" this week at Loew's Theater. This is by all odds the biggest blaze that has ever been screened. And you will be thrilled to the very center of your backbone watching Anna Q. Nilsson and Craig Ward dash through it on the antique eteam ensine, with the flames flying in their faces, and the trees and branches crackling and failing all around them.

I think that Loew's Theater started off by topping even their own record at the showing of this picture yesterday. The line-up for the evening show ran nearly down record at the showing of this picture yesterday. The line-up for the evening show ran nearly down to Eighth street. Of course, there were other reasons than "Hearts Aflame". There was Max Fischer's lazz band, for instance, and also the personal appearance by all the stars is the film feature, with Reginal Barker, the director, introducing them at the early evening show. Really the Loew Theater is getting over its premiers in gala shape, what with all this real brilliance in addition to the spectacular happenings on the screen.

The story of "Hearts Aflame" is the somewhat conventional one of the war over logging concessions. We have the villain planning destroy to the hero to the rescue. There are many touches that save the picture from falling into the outton to the heroine's forest, and the hero to the rescue. He has a great set of players in this film, from Miss Nilsson, who He has a great set of players in this film, from Miss Nilsson, who acts with rare charm and effectiveness as the heroine, rising to the status of a Viking's daughter in the thrill scenes, to Frank Keenan in a character role which is the delight of the audience. Craig Ward grows on you in the hero role. Russell Simpson, Richard Tucker, Ralph Cloninger, Martha Mattox, Wait Whitman, Lee Shumway, Irene Hunt and others all received applause for their work. Simpson and Miss Mattox in particular deserve credit.

tent to cause a rush to the theater. It doesn't seem to matter whether it be Mary Garden in the operatic version or Nazimova in a picture, the effect is the same alige of spontaneous combustion. It is better that the sybody still thinks that famous seven veils, and he's bent on finding out what it is. But to all intents and purposes, the why and the wherefore of the veils and the reason there should be seven of them, remains as great a riddle as ever. We were hoping that Nazimova would clear up the serest, but she doesn't. She does however, accomplish something entire' different in screes diversion—if her "Salome," which opened yesterday at the California Theater. can be described as a diversion.

In a statement furnished the Long Beach Chamber of Commission, of merce by the State Railroad Commission it was revealed that the daily production of was in the Signal Hill field is 228,000,000 cubic feet a day, and that of this amount 135,000,000 feet a day is permitted to go to waste.

Figures covering the daily consumption of natural gas in Long Beach show that 11,000,000 cubic feet are used here ally and that the wastage on Signal Hill is a dozen times greater than the entire daily consumption of gas in a city of 80,000 persons.

Exempt from Personal Property Taxes in the State of California cation has been filed to have these bonds certified as a legal investment for Call-Savings Banks, and bonds are offered subject to the issuance of this caraffects.

CUTRORIZED BY THE CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMMISSION

HISTORY: The Spring Valley Water Company, or its predecessor in interest, has supplied the City of San Francisco with water for municipal and domestic purposes since 1858. It is the largest privately owned water company in the United States.

PROPERTIES: The operative properties of the Company consist of 62,119 acres of land owned in fee, and riparian rights to 33,343 acres, together with water sources, lakes, reservoirs, dams, pipe lines and distribution mains, forming a complete water system which supplies the entire City and County of San Francisco, a population of approximately 650,000.

VALUE OF PROPERTY: The operative properties of as of March 1, 1920, by the Railroad Commission of the State of California, at $37,000,000. Recent improvements, extensions and additions, make present valuation exceed $38,000,000.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: To extinguish approximately $21,000,000 of funded indebtedness, and to provide for additions and extensions to the Company's BARNINGS: The Company's earnings have been steady and dependable. For the past six years, after providand all taxes, the av earnings have been 2.11 times the annual interest requirement on the bonds to be issued. For the year 1922, with the month of December estimated, the available earnings have been 2.47 times this interest LEGALITY: All proceedings in connection with the creation and issuance of these bonds will be approved by Messrs. McCutchen, Olney, Mannon & Greene, of San Francisco.

PUBLIC RELATIONS: The City of San Francisco has been given a twelve-year option to purchase the Company's operative properties at the California Railroad Commission's valuation, made in 1920, of $37,000,000, plus certain additions since that date. In the meanwhile, the city will build a bay conduit to be leased to the Company to augment the water supply. In case the city exercises its option to purchase the water company's properties, the trust indenture under which these bonds are secured, provides that the city may assume these bonds as a valid municipal obligation.

Application will be made to list these bonds on the San Francisco and New York Stock Exchanges Bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us.

Building Goes Ahead Rapidly in Beach City

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent VENICE, Jan. 14.—Great activity in building and real estate transactions has been recorded in the Bay District within the past few weeks. This is taken as a sign of much progress and prosperity during the coming year.

In the past sixty days L. C. Torrance Jr. has purchased property valued at more than $15,000 on Main street. Construction of large business blocks will be commenced on a portion of this property at once.

Because, you see, everything was all right when everybody was de-ing it. When our film queens, who always lead in these little matters, began stripping, society matrons and debutantes followed—a few weeks behind, with that discretion which permits the more daring pioneers to blase the trail. LEADERS FOLLOWED

So far so good. If the cinems queens stripped it must be fash-ionable—and likewise if the social elect followed suit it must be respectable. So femininty shed their sartorial burdens, both morally and materially, with a clear and united conscience.

incidence, has not transpired. But it was a most embarraising coincidence for the social elect, for the haughty grande dames and the otherwise unimpeachable debutantes. Tou see, they hadn't even an "it's the style" alibit to offer. And any Rip Van Winkle returning to the very hub of modern civilization, don't you know, most assuredly would have guessed wrong—ahen—as to the social standing of the two sets.

But, thank Heaven, the social

Los Angeles COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN

Grandmother spent half of her daylight hours in the kitchen. She had to! Continuous "pot-watching" was the price of good meals in her day. But is that any reason you should waste your afternoons over a hot stove - when you don't have to? As well argue that you should light your home with kerosene, get your water from "the old oaken bucket" or do your sweeping with a broom! Come out of the kitchen! Save your precious afternoons for those things you have always wanted to do - for wholesome recreation-for rest!

It Can Be Done! The purpose of this advertisement is to introduce to you a new (but prov-en) article of household equipment—and a new cooking plan. Just as the vacuum cleaner has taken the drudgery out of house-cleaning, so is The Westgate Automatic Elec-tric Cooking Cabinet making it possible for you to serve better meals and more economical meals—with your pot-watching" kitchen hours more than cut in half. Note the artist's sketch which gives some idea of the size, appearance and method of operation of The Westgate. Read the "six reasons"—then think what "kitchen hours reduced to minutes" would mean to you.

The Westgate-What It Is

An automatically-controlled electric oven operated at remarkably low pow-er cost from an ordinary light socket that in brief is The Westgate. Its outstanding feature is: You put your food in when it pleases you—set an auto-matic alarm clock control—then forget it until dinner time.

It is thoroughly practical—proven by 10 years successful use—simply modern science's latest creation for doing wearisome every-day tasks in a simpler, easier, more economical way.

Make Us Prove that the Westgate Saves Labor, Time and Money

Some of the claims which we make for The Westgate will surprise you. You will want to ask questions-to make us prove what we say.

That is why we are not attempting here to tell you the entire Westgate story, but are merely giving you an outline—then making it easy for you to send for further details and to see The Westgate work.

There are two ways to learn all about it:
(1) Set an hour when we can bring a Westgate into your home and help you cook a Westgate meal (use the coupon); (2) See it demonstrated at leading stores—particularly those listed consolidated under section 1323 of the new Revenue Act. The consolidation of the exemption makes it more simple for the tax payer to ascertain if his interest from Librity-bond holdings is subject to ax.

Certain exemptions are provided in the respective bond acts and other exemptions are provided in the Revenue Act. The exemptions are:

The interest pn 31-2 per cent Liberty bonds which have not been converted is totally exempt or free from the normal tax, surtax and excess profits tax. The same apiles to the Victory 33-4 per cent bonds. Do not confuse the 33-4 per cent Victory bonds with the 43-4 per cent Victory bonds with the 43-4 per cent Victory bonds. Interest on all other issues of Liberty bonds and Victory bonds is exempt from the nermal income tax. The interest above the exempt amounts, however, is subject to the surtax and excess profits tax, provided your income is sufficient to put you in those brackets. In the case of an individual the surtax is not applied till the net income (before the personal exemption is deducted) exceeds $5000.

It used to be considered a terrible diagrace if there was an insane person in the family, it was never spoken of it it could possibly be avoided. Every other member of the family had a secret fear that this doom might possibly be hanging over his head.

Now we know that a break in the mind belongs in the same category as a break in a bone. In other words, insanity is out of the realm of mystery and great fear that it used to be. In fact, we are not speaking of insanity so much

'Then it began to thunder and lightning. The gale got wilder and the thunder and lightning came more often. Seemed like there was just one clap after another and a ceaseless binze of lightning, changing the night into day and showing the raging seas all about us. Then suddenly out of the blackness, right overhead came a flash that blinded us and a clap that shook the ship.

"Down came the mizzenmast, falling in splinters athwart the deck. Right way, it seemed, clouds of smoke rushed out of the after hatch. The after cargo hold was afte. We rushed aft, thinking to yank off the hatchcovers and let the sea water in. The waves were coming over the stern, the guy wires from the mizzenmast were whipping about in the darkness, hitting together and striking sparks. Several times we were washed off our feet only to pick ourselves up, tangled in swimming lines.

Miss Jefferson was introduced formally to Southern California society at a large gathering given by her parents a month ago at the Midwick Country Club. She returned early last summer from an exclusive finishing school in Paris. The palatial homes of the two families are among the show places of Pasadena, and are almost opposite each other on Grand avenue. Mr. Scoville's father is a prominent art collector and one of the largest owners of the Waltham Watch Company.

The great tendency of today is toward the overcommercial viewpoint, and this can o'ally be counteracted by the play spirit. Prof. La Porte continued. The tendency in commercial life is toward selfish interests and this is counteracted by the community play program—when men play together they will be more friendly over the business desk.

"Delinquents are boys or girls, whose energies have not been directed in the right direction."

Churches are coming to realize this, Prof. La Forte added. Many students are preparing themselves to become social recreational leaders for churches and clubs and a special class in this field will be opened at the university at the beginning of the second semester.
